THE SCULLING BACK FOR THE CHAMPION

Addads, Nov. 29. Beach and Banks started from the post splendidly, both striking the water together and pulling forty. strokes to the minute. Some assert that Hanlan led at the start, but it is doubtful. For the first minute both Lowed terrifically. Beach's iron grip was greatly admired winds Hanlan's rewing was simply perfect. No advantage was gained for the first two that a sum of £10,000 would be ina lequate hundred yards, but Beach's strength bec me apparent in the second minute. Both rowed thirty-seven, giving a magnificent exhibition of skill. The steamer was unable to keep up with them at the quarter mile post. Beach watched his opponent intently. Deeble sang out Brach wins at the half mile, and acting on this, the Australian then forged ahead surely. Beach rowed harder, though Hanlan struck water quicker. The latter soon tried a tremendous spurt and lessened the Champion's lead. Beach replied with tremendons force, and drew away a length and half amidst the wildest excitement from the immenso crowds on the banks. The first mile was done in 5 minutes 55 seconds. Beach then slowed down. Haulan pulling at thirtyfour, a very plucky losing race. Beach furcureas, Mrs Jefferics, against whom a pres ther slowed to thirty, but the Canadisa preserved his stroke, and whenever he approached closer. Beach answered with a big effort. Nearly 3 lengths separated the two champions at two miles. The betting here was 100 to 1 on Beach. Both rowed thirty-two when passing Mr. Dibt & House. but Beach shortly slackened, though maintaining a slight lead. Both men now showed signs of tiring. At a half mile from the finia, the crowds at the winning post yelled that Boach would win, and terrific cheering went along the whole line of the banks. Ories were heard that Hanlan was done, but he answered with a grand spurt, and Beach again responded, still retaining his lead, Both men now settled down to a terrible tussle, but both were distressed. The last The S. S. Beach quickened to thirty; Hanlan, thirty. We take the following telegrams and Orient Companies. The steamship two. In the next bundred yards Beach pulled twenty-three, and Haulan thirty. There was terrific excitement as the Australian and the Canadian made their last effort, and Beach, forging away with a grand struke passed the post two clear lengths ahead. Both men were completely done, and Beach at the finish was very pale. Kemp now advertises to row Beach for the Championship of the World and £500, but the understanding exists that Boach will retire and resign the Championship to Kemp, who will be called upon to defend his title. MR GLADSTONE VEERING HOUND AGAIN.
